Behind the news, October

OCTOBER MEETINGS

There was no doubt that the activities undertaken this year so far, have been enjoyed by the members participating. Line dancing rave reports continue to roll in.

The committee approved these popular activities continuing in 2025 with a small subsidy to assist with the cost per member where possible.

The new calendar and associated budget, as approved, looks to providing everything we are used to enjoying but with some financial adjustments based on the level of support provided by you.

Our income is predicted to take a hit with reduced grants. The committee will be managing all activities to deliver the best possible result as things become clearer.

FUTURE OF ASSOCIATION

Sadly both Faye and Sheryl have announced that they are unable to continue beyond the annual general meeting.

It is now the turn of another team—as you are well aware, no president and no secretary, adds up to ‘no us’.

Please give this some thought and put your hand up if you can help keep us going.

Both Sheryl and Faye will continue to support our endeavours to the best of their time ability.

END OF YEAR MEETING

That was our last general meeting for the year—frightening eh?

LEGACY LODGE—FLAG GARDEN

Thanks to Bundaberg Legacy and Bunnings we now have a decorative garden at the base of the flagpole.

Maintaining the plants is our responsibility.

If you are in the area, please pop in and check if they need watering.

It would be further helpful if you could send a text or email to Sheryl to let her know—it may save her a trip.

VETERANS HEALTH WEEK EVENT

Sheryl led a small team of workers at Legacy House and they produced some great wreaths, as per the cover.

Finishing touches are still required but should be completed by the time you read this. Thank you to Sheryl and those who got together in support.

ACTIVITIES

Hervey Bay 2024

The red lipstick spread wide in all directions from the many female faces and even splattered onto some of the male attendees at this year’s Ruby Reunion luncheon.

I don’t recall seeing any female without a spot of red somewhere. Bundy was a splash and we did pretty well in the raffles too.

Thank you Hervey Bay—and all the best for the next decade! We hope many of us are still around to help you celebrate another milestone. (and all the ones in between)

Looking ahead to 2025—we again thank Hervey Bay for a calendar of friendship quotes to share through Chests Out.

Arguably, it is probably the best read segment on page 3!

Coming activities

Check page 6 for the following upcoming activities:

- ◇ Beach Bliss Art Class
- ◇ Christmas

Jeannie is the contact for these events and together with Jenny, a lot of work had gone into these events being provided for you.

CUPPA CHAT—NOV 6

Wed 6 November, we will be making arrangement for adorning our function tables at this year’s Christmas luncheon.

This little exercise will be led by our skilled florist member, Sheryl and should be both fun and rewarding. The arrangements can then be available for future use.

WELLBEING

Do we have details of your emergency contact?

This question was asked in the last issue but has not been responded to, to the best of my knowledge. I have the spreadsheet here and invite you to contact me to check what I have recorded—otherwise check with secretary Faye or myself when we are at the Lodge.

We need more volunteers to help with wellbeing support. Mainly to visit nursing homes or to maintain some contact with the members we seldom see. It is not a big job and even less so if we have a few doing it.

Again, the contact for more info is myself.

Please stay safe and healthy and enjoy the cooler part of summer in the lead up to annual festivities.

Flag Garden

Thank you to
Bunnings and Bundaberg Legacy

We now have a garden at the base of the flagpole.

If we wish it to remain looking great, then we need you to check when you are in the area and do this:

Otherwise it will look like this >>

Our garden—our task!

All of our activities need to be

SMELLS-free

Perfumes, aftershaves and other strong smelling products affect the health of many members. Please do not wear scented products to meetings or other activities, even outdoor activities.

THANK YOU

So that we can honour you!

If you wish your service to your country to be recognised at your funeral, you need to let your funeral director or your family know. It is your family who ask the funeral director to arrange to have the poppy tribute. Our association cannot interfere.

PHOTOS OF YOU

Unless you advise otherwise, it is deemed we have permission to take and publish photos of you in the newsletter or on our Facebook page. If this is not the case, please contact the secretary.

TO SAVE A LIFE

We may have a defibrillator, but we need to learn how to operate it.
search: HeartSine 500P

You may need to surf to find the YouTube videos—there are a couple, they are similar and all helpful.

The video has audio and you will probably need to watch it a number of times.

Refresh your training periodically.

NOVEMBER

anniversaries/significant events

11 Nov 1919 Remembrance Day

A day we acknowledge those who died while serving in wars, conflicts and peacekeeping operations. Remembrance Day is held on 11 November each year to mark the anniversary of the Armistice that ended fighting with Germany in World War I.

Observance of one minute's silence at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month because that's when the Armistice came into effect. It's a time to honour our service personnel who died in service of Australia.

CITY SERVICE

Please assemble at Buss Park at 1045 Hrs.

Watch for RSL texts and other advertising regarding any luncheon details.

The RSL sub Branch is seeking volunteers for sale for merchandise 4– 9 November

Please contact Jan 0418 983 415

RED SKELTON'S RECIPE FOR THE PERFECT MARRIAGE

1. Two times a week we go to a nice restaurant, have a little beverage, good food and companionship. She goes on Tuesdays; I go on Fridays.

2. We also sleep in separate beds. Hers is in California, and mine is in Texas.

3. I take my wife everywhere .. but she keeps finding her way back.

4. I asked my wife where she wanted to go for our anniversary. "Somewhere I haven't been in a long time!" she said. So I suggested the kitchen.

5. We always hold hands. If I let go, she shops.

6. She has an electric blender, electric toaster and electric bread maker. She said "There are too many gadgets, and no place to sit down!" So I bought her an electric chair.

7. My wife told me the car wasn't running well because there was water in the carburetor. I asked where the car was. She told me, "In the lake."

8. She got a mud pack, and looked great for two days. Then the mud fell off.

9. She ran after the garbage truck, yelling, "Am I too late for the garbage?" The driver said, "No, jump in!"

10. Remember: Marriage is the number one cause of divorce.

11. I married Miss Right. I just didn't know her first name was Always.

12. I haven't spoken to my wife in 18 months I don't like to interrupt her.

13. The last fight was my fault though. My wife asked, "What's on the TV?" I said, "Dust!"

Can't you just hear him say all of these? I love it ... these were the good old days when humor didn't have to start with a four letter word. It was just clean and simple fun.

And he always ended his programs with the words, "God Bless."

Three Little Pigs went out to dinner one night. The waiter comes and takes their drink order.

"I would like a Sprite," said the first little piggy. "I would like a Coke," said the second little piggy. "I want water, lots and lots of water," said the third little piggy.

The drinks are brought out and the waiter takes their orders for dinner.

"I want a nice big steak," said the first piggy. "I would like the salad plate," said the second piggy. "I want water, lots and lots of water," said the third little piggy.

The meals were brought out and a while later the waiter approached the table and asked if the piggies would like any dessert.

"I want a banana split," said the first piggy. "I want a root beer float," said the second piggy. "I want water, lots and lots of water," exclaimed the third little piggy.

"Pardon me for asking," said the waiter! to the third little piggy, "but why have you only ordered water all evening?"

(You're gonna LOVE me for this.... etc...)

The third piggy says - "Well, somebody has to go 'Wee, wee, wee, all the way home!"

SMILE

I'm not saying I'm old and worn out, but I make sure I'm nowhere near the curb on trash day

"Let's Play A Game!"

WIFE: Let's play a GAME
HUSBAND: What is the game?
WIFE: If I say the name of a colour, you run to the left wall, if I say the name of a fruit, you run to the right wall.

HUSBAND: Hmmm, sounds interesting; what do I get if I win?

WIFE: Whoever loses has to obey the other person for the rest of their life.

HUSBAND: Wow! I have to win this game!

WIFE: Okay, ready?

HUSBAND: Yes, I'm ready...

WIFE: Here we go:- ORANGE...!

HUSBAND has been standing in the same spot for three days...figuring out whether she meant a colour or a fruit.

Moral of the story: Don't mess with women, their intelligence is something else.
